The M4 from London to South Wales. Over the Seven bridges this is a toll crossing approx (Cash) £5.50 sterling. Disabled cardholders free, they do not have to be the driver, just one of the passengers.

Travel along the M4 to junction 49 Pont-Abraham Service Area where the road becomes the A48 again towards Carmarthen. (Straight across this roundabout)

Continue to the next roundabout called Cross Hands (passing little chef and petrol garage on your left. Take the third exit A476 towards Llandeilo .

Travel along this road approx two miles, after passing the Texico Service Station on your left; take the next left onto the B4297 going up a very steep hill for Maesybont and Dryslwyn.

Follow this road for some miles (Take time to look at the view) before travelling down to the bottom T-junction. Turn left, travel approx 400yds then turn right. Over river, passing a small derelict castle of Dryslwyn on your right, carry on to main crossroads, where you will meet the main A40. (Left Carmarthen, right Llandeilo)

Properties thin out at this point, but continue on and up, you will see on your left log cabins of Pantglas Hall , then a T-junction. Turn right, down hill, for about one mile. The road carries on straight but there is a small turning to the right. This will bring you to a small crossroads.

The old farmers arms pub building on your right, drive straight across, passing the Llanfynydd sign as if going out of the village on the Caple Issac road, 200yds up on the right is a low stone walled entrance to Stangwrach . Sign posted Holiday Accommodation. You have arrived.

(Sat-Navigation may send you through the village, facing the Pennybont Inn with the church on your left. Continue up to the top of the hill and turn left at the small crossroads)

Please drive carefully as the country lanes are narrow in places and do not hesitate to call us if you get lost and we will come and find you. Reception for mobile phones is fairly good, but if you lose your signal and are lost head for the nearest hilltop.

Will the person who is responsible for the booking please go to the main house with the Refundable Cash security deposit (£200 Lodge or £100 Cottage) to exchange for the keys and to collect electricity meter reading and receipt.

Your arrival time on Saturday is from 4.30pm.

We look forward to welcoming you.
